JOURNALS

Included in the Thomson Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index®

Angelaki
Journal of the Theoretical Humanities

General Editor: Pelagia Goulimari, Oxford, UK
Editor: Gerard Greenway, Oxford, UK

Angelaki: Journal of the Theoretical Humanities was established to provide an international forum for vanguard work in the theoretical humanities. In itself a contentious category, 'theoretical humanities' represents the productive nexus of work in the disciplinary fields of literary criticism and theory, philosophy, and cultural studies. The journal is dedicated to the refreshing of intellectual coordinates, and to the challenging and vivifying process of re-thinking.

Asian Philosophy
The International Journal of the Philosophical Traditions of the East

Editors: Brian Carr, University of Exeter, UK and Indira Mahalingam Carr, University of Surrey, UK

Asian Philosophy is an international journal concerned with such philosophical traditions as Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Buddhist and Islamic. The purpose of the journal is to bring these rich and varied traditions to a worldwide academic audience.

It publishes articles in the central philosophical areas of metaphysics, philosophy of mind, epistemology, logic, moral and social philosophy, as well as in applied philosophical areas such as aesthetics and jurisprudence. It also publishes articles comparing Eastern and Western philosophical traditions.

Australasian Journal of Philosophy
The journal of the Australasian Association of Philosophy

Editor: Stewart Candlish, University of Western Australia, Australia
The Australasian Journal of Philosophy is one of the world's leading philosophy journals. Founded in 1923, it has been continuously published ever since. It is recognized as one of the best in the analytic tradition, but is not narrow in what it regards as worthy of acceptance. In addition to Articles and Discussion Notes, the journal publishes Book Reviews and Book Notes as well as occasional commissioned Critical Notices.

Included in the Thomson Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index®

British Journal for the History of Philosophy
The journal of the British Society for the History of Philosophy

Editor: Michael Beaney, University of York, UK

The BJHP publishes articles and reviews on the history of philosophy from the ancient world to the end of the twentieth century. The journal is designed to foster understanding of the history of philosophy through studying the writings of past philosophers in their context and with sensitivity to issues of both philosophical argumentation and historical development.

Although focusing on the recognized classics, a feature of the journal is to give attention to less major figures and to influences and relationships that are often overlooked. Articles cover the history of Western philosophy, although articles that explore connections to other traditions are also encouraged.

History of European Ideas

Editor: Richard Whatmore, Sussex Centre for Intellectual History, UK
History of European Ideas is devoted to the intellectual history of Europe from the Renaissance onwards. It is interdisciplinary in that it aims to publish papers on the history of ideas in a number of different fields: political and economic thought, philosophy, natural philosophy and science, theology and literature. Treatments of the history of ideas which cut across these categories or which trace connections between them in different European countries are particularly welcome. Proposals for special issues devoted to historical themes or to proceedings of conferences are also encouraged.

Inquiry An Interdisciplinary Journal of Philosophy

Editor: Wayne Martin, University of Essex, UK

Inquiry is an interdisciplinary journal of philosophy. Founded by Arne Næss in 1958, Inquiry has come to occupy a distinctive and highly valued place amongst the philosophical journals. Inquiry is a refereed journal, publishing in all areas of philosophy. It has made its most distinctive mark in fostering exchange across the various internal boundaries and barriers that characterized philosophy over the past century. It has been a significant force in breaking down the distinction between so-called "analytic" and "continental" philosophy; it seeks to connect the history of philosophy with its current practice; it has been a venue for cross-fertilization between philosophy and the social sciences; and it seeks connections between fundamental philosophical issues and contemporary cultural developments.

Intellectual History Review

Journal of the International Society for Intellectual History

Editors: Stephen Clucas, Birkbeck, University of London, UK and Stephen Gaukroger, University of Sydney, Australia and University of Aberdeen, UK

Intellectual History Review is the journal of the International Society for Intellectual History. The journal is a forum for the Anglo-American and European intellectual history community, promoting the work and aims of the ISIH as well as the study of intellectual history more generally. As well as articles, IHR regularly publishes literature surveys, and essay reviews of current work in intellectual history and related historical areas.

Included in the Thomson Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index®

International Journal of Philosophical Studies

Editor: Maria Baghramian, University College Dublin, Ireland

The International Journal of Philosophical Studies (IJPS) publishes academic articles of the highest quality from both analytic and continental traditions and provides a forum for publishing on a broader range of issues than is currently available in philosophical journals. IJPS also publishes annual special issues devoted to key thematic areas or to critical engagements with contemporary philosophers of note.

Through its Discussion section, it provides a lively forum for exchange of ideas and encourages dialogue and mutual comprehension across all philosophical traditions.

www.tandfonline.com/riph

International Studies in the Philosophy of Science

Editor: James W. McAllister, University of Leiden, The Netherlands

International Studies in the Philosophy of Science is a scholarly journal dedicated to publishing original research in philosophy of science and in philosophically informed history and sociology of science. Its scope includes the foundations and methodology of the natural, social, and human sciences, philosophical implications of particular scientific theories, and broader philosophical reflection on science. The editors invite contributions not only from philosophers, historians, and sociologists of science, but also from researchers in the sciences. The journal publishes articles from a wide variety of countries and philosophical traditions. The editors encourage participation in the annual Philosophy of Science conference at the Inter-University Centre, Dubrovnik, a forum for high-quality research and international debate in philosophy of science.

Philosophical Explorations An International Journal for the Philosophy of Mind and Action

Editor: Anthonie Meijers, Eindhoven University, The Netherlands

Philosophical Explorations aims to publish outstanding articles in the philosophy of mind and action, with an emphasis on issues concerning the interrelations between cognition and agency.

Contributions are welcomed in the area of the philosophy of mind and action and related disciplines such as moral psychology, ethics, philosophical anthropology, social philosophy, political philosophy and philosophy of the social sciences. The journal also welcomes contributions of an interdisciplinary kind, establishing bridges between philosophy and, for example, evolutionary biology, neuroscience, psychology, and political science.

Philosophical Papers Co-published with UNISA Press

Editors: Lucy Allais, University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa, Ward E. Jones, Rhodes University, South Africa and Samantha Vice, Rhodes University, South Africa

Philosophical Papers is an international, generalist journal of philosophy edited in South Africa. Articles appearing in the March and July issues are original, high-quality, and stand-alone, and are written for the general professional philosopher. The editor welcomes submissions in any area of philosophy. The November issue of each year is a dedicated, topic-based issue, guest-edited and comprised of both invited and submitted papers. The editor welcomes ideas for future special issues.

Philosophical Psychology

Editors: William Bechtel, University of California, San Diego, USA and Cees van Leeuwen, University of Leuven, Belgium

Philosophical Psychology is an international journal devoted to developing and strengthening the links between philosophy and the psychological sciences, both as basic sciences and as employed in applied settings, by publishing original, peer-refereed contributions to this expanding field of study and research.

Published articles deal with issues that arise in the cognitive and brain sciences, and in areas of applied psychology. Emphasis is placed on articles concerned with cognitive and perceptual processes, models of psychological processing, including neural network and dynamical systems models, and relations between psychological theories and accounts of neural underpinnings or environmental context.

www.tandfonline.com/cphp

Social Epistemology

A Journal of Knowledge,
Culture and Policy

Executive Editor: James H. Collier, Virginia Tech, USA

Social Epistemology provides a forum for philosophical and social scientific enquiry that incorporates the work of scholars from a variety of disciplines who share a concern with the production, assessment and validation of knowledge. The journal covers both empirical research into the origination and transmission of knowledge and normative considerations which arise as such research is implemented, serving as a guide for directing contemporary knowledge enterprises.

www.tandfonline.com/tsep

Ethics Journals

Ethics, Policy & Environment

Editors: Benjamin Hale, University of Colorado, Boulder, USA and Andrew Light, George Mason University, USA

Ethics, Policy & Environment offers scholarly articles, reviews, critical exchanges, and short reflections on all aspects of environmental ethics, environmental philosophy, and the normative dimensions of environmental policy.

While Ethics, Policy & Environment centers on environmental ethics and policy, its substantive coverage is wider. Authors have been concerned with a range of subjects, such as applied environmental ethics, animal welfare, environmental justice, development ethics, sustainability, and cultural values relevant to environmental concerns.

www.tandfonline.com/cepe

Journal of Global Ethics

Lead Editor: Christien van den Anker, University of the West of England, UK

Editors: Sirkku Hellsten, University of Helsinki & The Embassy of Finland, Maputo, Mozambique and Heather Widdows, Centre for the Study of Global Ethics, University of Birmingham, UK

The Journal of Global Ethics is an international and interdisciplinary scholarly journal concerned with ethical issues arising in the global context. The journal promotes the study of "global ethics", encouraging examination of the wide variety of ethical issues that arise in the context of globalisation and global relations. The journal provides a forum for the analysis of ethics and values and their relationship to globalisation, international relations, politics and development, engaging particularly in debates about global justice.
